The Jail Game

The aim of the game was to break out of jail. I had to wait at my friend to come with me. We had to wait as it was getting late. Then my friend decided to faint! I was not happy as I wanted to set sail. The main gate was closed so I waited until it rained and then I broke free. Once I was free, I jumped on a boat and set sail to an island far away. This made my day! Where in the world would you go? Perhaps you would catch a train.

Paint Ball

On a sunny Tuesday I wanted to paint something. Not just anything, I wanted to paint a person! I didn't want to wait as it was getting late. My main brain told me to go on the train and arrive at the paint ball place. When I arrived at paint ball I was on a high! I put on my chain and put on some protective clothes. I could see the paint ballers in the distance having fun. I am worried my clothes might get a stain. But that's okay as it will be a great day anyway. Oh no! I can see a rain cloud in the distance. I hope it doesn't rain on me! We will just have to wait and see. Which colour do you think splatted on me first?
